

Soularium Culture Questions

Using Images to Connect Culture and the Gospel

DESTINO

1. Choose one picture that describes your family.
2. Choose one picture that describes where you grew up.
3. Choose one picture that describes your family celebrating your favorite holiday.
4. Everyone's upbringing and culture has ways that truly reflect God's image. Choose an image that represents something about your culture or upbringing that reflects who God is.
5. Everyone's upbringing and culture has aspects that are imperfect or reflect how we are broken. Choose an image that represents something about your culture or upbringing that reflects the brokenness.

If you've really been connecting with the person, say something like:

"We're part of a group on campus that is all about helping people grow in a relationship with God, and become the people they're destined to be. We talk a lot about what God has to say about our cultures and ethnicities. We're called Destino - come check us out! We meet at _____...can you make it this week?"

Make sure you trade phone numbers or add them on Facebook so you can hang out with them and continue the conversation!

Soularium Culture Questions

Using Images to Connect Culture and the Gospel

DESTINO

1. Choose one picture that describes your family.
2. Choose one picture that describes where you grew up.
3. Choose one picture that describes your family celebrating your favorite holiday.
4. Everyone's upbringing and culture has ways that truly reflect God's image. Choose an image that represents something about your culture or upbringing that reflects who God is.
5. Everyone's upbringing and culture has aspects that are imperfect or reflect how we are broken. Choose an image that represents something about your culture or upbringing that reflects the brokenness.

If you've really been connecting with the person, say something like:

"We're part of a group on campus that is all about helping people grow in a relationship with God, and become the people they're destined to be. We talk a lot about what God has to say about our cultures and ethnicities. We're called Destino - come check us out! We meet at _____...can you make it this week?"

Make sure you trade phone numbers or add them on Facebook so you can hang out with them and continue the conversation!